

Projected Gas Demand Growth by Sector, Mid-Atlantic Region

U.S. EIA projects 0.4% annual growth for the 3 Mid Atlantic states (NY, NJ, PA) through 2035, compared to the national average of 0.2%, with the greatest rate of growth in the commercial and residential sectors. The role of natural gas in electric power generation, in NGA's view, will likely be higher in the mid- and longer-term. Shown here are the sectoral consumption breakouts through 2025.
