

Lead Analyst - Regulatory Case Management

Responsibilities

Performs technical, analytical, and statistical duties related to forecasting and tariff development. Responsible for leading major, critical projects relating to rate proceedings and collaboratives in support of Company objectives. Provides regulatory support and advice to meet other business area objectives.

MAJOR ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES (Scope of work - range of responsibilities):

1. Coordinates and develops information, data, and processes to meet formal and informal data requests from regulators and other parties. Coordinates and/or prepares compliance filings with the State regulatory commission. (25%,P)
2. Coordinates OpCo involvement in regulatory proceedings. Monitors various regulatory proceedings, schedules, and decisions to keep the OpCo informed of regulatory activities and issues. (20%,P)
3. May develop, maintain, and administer official company tariffs. (10%,S)
4. Provides support and expert witness testimony of company's State and Federal rate regulatory proceedings and collaboratives. (10%,S)
5. Provides technical advice and guidance across OpCo business area and to outside subject matter experts. Provides support through research and qualitative/quantitative analysis, including rate case support. (15%,P)
6. May provide subject matter expertise in the design and development of new and/or changes to existing customer billing systems (and processes) to meet regulatory requirements. (10%,S)
7. May act as litigation case manager for civil proceedings which includes preparation of court documents and conducting legal & regulatory research. May act as Knowledge Manager for knowledge manager software (including training new users and assisting managers).(10%,S)

Skills and Requirements

Bachelor's degree with a minimum of 3 years relevant experience preferred. Associates Degree with a minimum of 5 years relevant experience required.

- Experience in regulatory compliance and utility industry is beneficial. Knowledge of regulatory tariff process.
- Experience in managing projects.
- Knowledge of cost accounting, statistical techniques, and rate design principles.
- Knowledge of Company databases and reporting capabilities.

Certifications:

- Paralegal certification desirable (varies by OpCo).

Skills/Abilities:

Strong communications (written and verbal), interpersonal skills.

- Excellent organizational skills.
- Strong analytical capabilities

To apply:

<https://www.careers.iberdrola.com/Avangrid/job/Orange-Lead-Analyst-Regulatory-&-Tariffs-CT-06477/708946401/>