

Job Title: Supervisor - Corrosion & Damage Prevention

Responsibilities

Establish and maintain centralized Corrosion Control & Damage Prevention programs at Berkshire Gas. Responsible for coordination of bargaining unit employees and outside contractors performing tasks associated to the Cathodic protection system & the Damage prevention programs. The supervisor will be in responsible for compliance with Federal code and State Regulations associated to both Damage Prevention and Corrosion Control. Review and communicate program metrics & performance to management team.

Provide review and guidance on operational best practices. Responsible for electronic corrosion data inspection processes and inspection databases. Oversee the damage prevention program including scheduling, tracking and reporting according to Berkshire gas Work Practices/Gas Operating Procedures.

Responsible for developing, implementing, monitoring, tracking and reporting a statewide Damage Prevention Program for Berkshire Gas to insure protection against any damages that could impact the Berkshire gas facilities. May interact with regulatory agencies, local municipalities, Massachusetts Dig Safe, Industry Organizations, and third-party contractors to review problems/concerns and ensure compliance. Perform damage investigations on any damages that occurs within the system. The supervisor will support gas field operations and other departments within the Avangrid organization & execute other duties as requested.

Skills and Requirements

- Associate degree in a Technical field of study with a minimum of 5 years of technical experience in natural gas industry or related construction experience.
- High School Diploma/GED equivalent with a minimum of 10 years of experience in natural gas industry or related construction experience.
- Bachelor's degree or higher with minimum of 4 four years of related experience in gas operations

Skills/Abilities:

- Technical skills in the field of corrosion control and knowledge of gas distribution.
- Good oral and written skills.
- Teamwork orientated.
- Technical problem-solving abilities.
- Ability to manage complex databases.
- Must obtain appropriate licenses, certificates, and operator qualifications for work performed.
- Must be able to read mechanical drawings and be able to update mapping records.
- Must be proficient in the use of computer technology (iPad, laptop, etc...)
- Must be available for response during and after hour emergencies and critical assignments.
- Must have knowledge of the distribution system and understand the construction and operation of Distribution Division equipment and tools
- Must be able to obtain NACE Certifications.

Apply directly at: [www.avangrid.com/careers-job number 29292](http://www.avangrid.com/careers-job number 29292)